

Name: _____ Date: _____ Block: _____

Inquiry Question: _____

Goal: Students have completed their IRQ Notes in Week 3. Week 4, students add onto their IRQ Notes and write an essay introduction (250 words including in-text citations) plus a Bibliography (not included in 250 words).

Curricular competencies: Students use appropriate investigation methods to assess/address behaviour and ethical issues in the context of their Inquiry Question. Students define and apply concepts/theories to make conclusions consistent with evidence.

The IRQ Week 4 instruction are as stated in the table below (4.0).

Table 4.0: Week 4 Student Checklist

1. __ Organize Subtitles into 3 Main Arguments that support your answer to question → Week 3 you completed 6 Subtitles; Week 4 you break them into 3 Main Arguments
2. __ Organize Citations accordingly to your 3 Main Arguments → Week 3 you completed 7 citations; Week 4 you assign them to your 3 Main Arguments
3. __ COMPLETED 100-word Introduction → Week 3 you completed the Rough Introduction; Week 4 you edit and finish your explanation of Supportive Points that answer your question. 100 words.
4. __ ROUGH 200-word Main Argument 1
5. __ ROUGH 200-word Main Argument 2

Each of your Main Arguments should contain two of your Subtitles, which are labels for two Supportive Points. Each of your Supportive Points should be a 100-word paragraph. Each Supportive Point paragraph should begin with an introductory sentence and finish with a concluding sentence.

For your convenience, I have placed a guideline for the full Essay Structure. Don't worry! In Week 4, you only have to complete a rough draft of the Introduction, Main Argument 1, and Main Argument 2.
