

AP Psychology 12 – Inquiry Questions and Topics

Perspective

Research and bias
Critical thinking
Media and psychology
Discrimination and psychology

Introduction

Perspectives of psychology and counseling
Founding figures of psychology and bias
Subfields of psychology and careers
Issues of Psychology, counseling, and psychiatry
Business responsibility

Statistics and the Scientific Method

Statistics and population “trends”
Business and psychology and responsibility
Bias and research outcomes
Research that is supported and financed

Evolutionary Psychology

What is our modern day adaptation?
Human behaviour and current adolescent trends
Natural disasters “balance” the population
Why do people want to help others? NGOs?
Why not allow people to survive or “die out”?

Developmental Psychology

Daycare’s affect on childhood attachment
Research strategies for understanding infants
Media and teen development
Society and treatment of elderly
Grief and the well being of society
Why might change be a gradual process

Sensation and Perception

Western ideas’ affect on interaction with other cultures

Is it conflict, or just a perception?

Adaptation and getting “used to” a bad situation

Consciousness

Can hypnosis enhance recall of forgotten events?

Caffeine is an accepted societal drug

Behaviourism

Conditioning in our society

Humans and the concept of “free will”

Memory

Memory and life success

Memory reconstruction and the law

Thinking and Language

The power of language in human interaction

Algorithms and success

Computers and language

Intelligence

Intelligence and education

Exams and tests

Motivation

Human sexuality

Hunger and eating concerns and problems

Emotion

Expression and deception

Personality

Types and connections with occupations

Disorders, Stress, Therapy and Health

Models and bias in diagnosing and treating

Cultures, crisis and recovery

International care and aid

Immune system and stress